GUIDE FOR EMPLOYED PROFESSIONALS (SUBORDINATE WORKERS)

ALL THE PROCEDURES YOU NEED TO FOLLOW TO LIVE AND WORK IN MILANO

As of July 2020
STEP-BY-STEP IMMIGRATION PROCESS CHART FOR EMPLOYED PROFESSIONALS (SUBORDINATE WORKERS) MOVING TO MILANO

General note: This Guide is intended for use by people who are seeking to move to Italy to work as employed professionals (defined as “subordinate workers,” see below). Certain categories of professionals may be eligible for the EU Blue Card program through a separate process (for additional information from Italy and the European Union respectively, see here and here). The procedural steps detailed in this Guide pertain to those who plan to stay in Italy for 90 days or more. Shorter stays typically do not require many of the steps needed for longer stays, however, some of the information contained in individual steps in the Guide may be relevant for those planning shorter stays who wish to obtain, e.g., the Codice Fiscale (the Italian tax identification number).

Definitions: The immigration process set forth in this Guide applies to employed professionals, referred to in Italian government documentation as “subordinate workers” (in Italian, “lavori dipendenti” or “lavoro subordinato”). Subordinate workers are defined as “Persons who, in consideration of a certain salary, bind themselves to perform their intellectual or manual work activity within the company, under the management and the control of their employer” (Article 2094, Italian Civil Code).

Sources: This information is compiled from interviews with officials responsible for various stages of the immigration process and from extensive review of publicly available online sources. Online sources reviewed include government websites (Italian national and municipal, and foreign) and non-government websites (universities, popular blogs, travel sites, etc.)

We recommend obtaining the Codice Fiscale at your home country embassy or consulate before you move to Milano, as the Codice Fiscale is necessary to sign a lease, open a bank account, purchase or rent a car, etc. However, you can also obtain the Codice Fiscale once you arrive in Italy.

   • After arriving in Italy, you can also register for health insurance options including the Italian National Health Service (“Servizio Sanitario Nazionale,” also known as the “SSN”; see details in callout box on the following page) or a private provider.
A note on... Italian National Health Insurance

If you wish to obtain health insurance through the Italian National Health Service ("Servizio Sanitario Nazionale" aka "SSN"), after arriving in Milano, important details and procedural steps are as follows:

The SSN covers choice of general practitioner, admission to public or certified private hospitals, and emergency care. You cannot enroll in the SSN without first applying for the Codice Fiscale (Step 3) and the Permesso di Soggiorno (Step 5).

For those, including employed professionals, with valid work contracts: registration is free, although you will still have to complete the enrolment process as detailed below. For non-EU citizens, enrolment is valid for the duration of your residence permit and must be renewed by repeating the process below after renovating the residence permit.

a. Process:
   - You should first locate your closest ASST (Local Health Authority) office. You should go to or contact Ufficio Scelta e Revoca to confirm if there are any specific requirements.

Step 5: Obtain Permesso di Soggiorno (obtained in Milano):
The Permesso di Soggiorno, also known as the “Residence Permit,” is the document required for non-EU nationals to validate their legal residence in Italy for up to two years at a time.

a. Process:
   • You must apply for the Permesso di Soggiorno within eight working days of your arrival in Italy by going in person to a Post Office designated as a Sportello Amico, where you request, fill out and submit the yellow application kit.
     ▪ Post Offices designated as Sportelli Amici will feature a “Sportello Amico” logo. To locate your nearest Sportello Amico, search for your city here; select the Post Office on the map and confirm that the “Sportello Amico” is written under the “servizi” section.
     ▪ Please note that the application kit is only available in Italian. (For English speakers, see this guide to filling out the kit for employed workers).
   • In order to submit the application at the Post Office, you must also purchase a revenue stamp (called “Marca da Bollo”) at a “Tabaccheria” (a shop marked with a “T” sign), which are located throughout the city. The Marca da Bollo must be affixed to the application for it to be submitted.

   ▪ Valid national ID document (such as a Passport) with Work Visa
   ▪ 4 passport-sized photos (taken within the last 6 months)
   ▪ Work contract provided by your Italian employer (“Contrato di soggiorno per lavoro”)
   ▪ Proof of health insurance (copy of insurance policy or payment receipt for insurance policy, valid in Italy) (Step 4) We recommend that you make 2 photocopies of each of the above items (including all pages of the Passport), for submission with your application and for use at the Questura appointment, the next stage of the process.
   ▪ Revenue Stamp (“Marca da Bollo”)

   • You must sign and date the application form in front of a representative at the Sportello Amico. Once you submit the application kit, you will receive a receipt for its submission, as well as the time, date and place for your fingerprinting appointment with the Questura, which is the next stage of your Permesso di Soggiorno application.4
   • You will also receive a user ID and password that will enable you to check on the issuance status of your Permesso di Soggiorno online on the Immigration Portal (website section "Area Riservata Stranieri") OR on the website of the Italian National Police.

For Questura fingerprinting appointment:

4 Please note: Until your Permesso di Soggiorno is issued, your application kit receipt will act as proof of your legal immigration registration and status, so keep it with you at all times. (While it is recommended to keep a copy of the application kit, the original must be shown if requested by the Police.)
• You must go to the designated Questura location at the time and date of the appointment indicated on the receipt you received at the Post Office upon submission of the Permesso di Soggiorno application (see above). At the Questura, you will submit required documents that will be reviewed during a brief interview.
• After the Questura appointment, it may take from several weeks to several months for issuance of your Permesso di Soggiorno. You can check on issuance status online on the Immigration Portal (website section "Area Riservata Stranieri") OR on the website of the Italian National Police. You will also receive SMS notification of the date, time, and place that your Permesso di Soggiorno is ready for pickup.
• In the interim, you will continue to use your application kit receipt as proof of your legal immigration registration and status.

   To apply online:
   - Go to the Residenza Cittadini Stranieri (“Residence for Foreign Citizens”) page of the City of Milano’s website and select “Presenta la richiesta” (“Submit the Request”). Note: the website includes a Google Translate function, available in the top right corner, enabling you to follow the process in your preferred language.

   - Once you have confirmed your login, proceed to “cambio di residenza per cittadini stranieri provenienti dall’estero o da altro comune italiano” to begin your Certificato di Residenza application, following the prompts to provide the required information and documentation. You may save and return to the form as needed.

The ID Card is issued to all residents. To get the ID Card you must have applied for residence in Milano.

Individuals moving to Milano are not required to obtain the Residence and the Municipal ID Card; however, doing so is strongly recommended, as residence offers a number of benefits, including the possibility of voting in local elections, and the ID Card is valid for free circulation among EU member states, and is a secure access to government online services.

As a result, a receipt will be given to you.

Processing of the card takes more or less two weeks. You can have it delivered at home (but you must pick it up in person, or give the Anagrafe officer the name and ID copy of a delegate) or you can pick it up at the Anagrafe. The receipt and a valid ID are needed to pick it up.
