Il mercante di Venezia di W. Shakespeare

Music by Civica Orchestra di Fiati di Milano, an event in collaboration with Tournée da Bar

Following the great success of last year's show, Davide Lorenzo Palla and Civica Orchestra di Fiati di Milano are coming back, by popular demand, to enrich the Estate Sforzesca programme, with an original version of The Merchant of Venice by William Shakespeare. On stage, Davide Lorenzo Palla will take spectators to the magical Venice of the XVI century to discover Shylock, the most famous Jew in the history of theatre who, as a potential executioner, becomes victim of its own wicked scheme and of a justice system that mocks him. A rich sound plot, through the music performed live by the multi-instrumentalist and composer Tiziano Cannas Aghedu, supported by the Civica Orchestra di Fiati, will accompany the story, providing a completely novel version of the Shakespearean masterpiece.

La voce di Strehler

By di Spirit de Milan APS.

Hundred years has passed since the great director Giorgio Strehler was born in a small district at the fringe of Trieste. To remember him, avoiding celebratory concessions that the Maestro would have despised, three voices that he personally loved: Giorgio Bongiovanni and Stefano De Luca, two of its students from its first class at Piccolo Teatro School, e Umberto Ceriani, an actor that worked extensively with him and within the artistic family that, to these days, still embrace all that encountered Piccolo Teatro.

Matthew Lee feat. Gennaro Porcelli + Joe Bastianich & La Terza Classe

Curated by Barley Arts

The exclusive double show will see Joe Bastianich open the dance: the "The Restaurant Man" will be accompanied by the Neapolitan folk/bluegrass ensemble La Terza Classe. They participated to the famous American TV show Music City Roots and after the semi-final of the Italian edition 2016 of Italia's Got Talent, Joe was enchanted by their extraordinary talent. He decided then to embark on the current summer tour with them, to create a new show that will help discover the roots of American music.

The closing part of the show will see the performance of Matthew Lee, charismatic composer, singer and pianist with extraordinary virtuosity, unique crooner on the national scene, play rock'n'roll and swing, as well as the Italian songwriting songs, inspired by the world of the '50s in the US. Accompanied by his extraordinary band (where as a special guest will appear the bluesman Gennaro Porcelli, already at the court of Edoardo Bennato), Matthew Lee will offer the Milanese audience his new show "Blues, Rock & Love", a journey through the virtuosity of Liberace, the rock soul of Jerry Lee Lewis, the style of Ray Charles, the feeling of Frank Sinatra, the universality of Elvis Presley and the funambolic pianism of Renato Carosone.
